

Agenda for the International Co-control Benefits Analysis
Program (ICAP) Policymakers Workshop on Korea-ICAP
Activities and Results

October 2000

Draft Agenda

International Co-control Benefits Analysis Program (ICAP) Policy makers workshop on Korea-ICAP Activities and Results

16 October 2000

Venue: Korea Environment Institute
Participants: 20 from Korea, 4 from the US
Language: Korean
Documents: English with Korean, if applicable

09:00 – 10:40 Session I : ICAP Project Activities and Results

Chair: Seunghun Joh

Overview of ICAP program: current process, further plans next steps for collaboration:
Paul Schwengels, US EPA

Panel discussion on ICAP-Korea Activities and Results by ICAP-Korea Team

Discussants:

Mitigation Scenarios: Seunghun Joh
Air Quality Modeling: ShangGyu Shim
Health Effects Analysis: JooHun Sung
Valuation of Health Effects: Youchul Shin
Conclusion and discussion: Seunghun Joh

10:40 – 11:00 Break

11:00 – 12:30 Session II: Technical Review of ICAP Activities and Results

Moderator: To be determined

Korean and US experts will provide technical comments on the ICAP approach, methodology and results and provide commentary on the role and potential contribution of ICAP to policymaking.

12:30 – 14:00 Lunch

14:00 – 14:20 Session III : Review of economic works on climate change

Moderator: To be determined

Presenters from KEI and KEEI will review economic studies carried out on climate change mitigation, co-benefits and valuation of health effects in Korea.

14:20 – 15:50 Policy makers perspectives on the ICAP study and results

Policymakers Panel:

- MOE (global environment division and air quality division)
- MOCIE
- MOFAT
- KEMCO (Dr. Sughoon Woo)
- National Assembly
- Prime Minister's Office
- NCSD and/or President Office

-Each panelist is asked to address several previously suggested questions focusing on the usefulness of the ICAP approach and results to policymaking.

15:50 – 16:15 Break

16:15 – 17:00 General Discussion

Moderator: Joh

Summarize various stakeholders view points on the ICAP program in Korea and propose research agenda for further works to the government and institutions in concern.

17:00 Dinner